

WASHINGTON COUNTY
 PRESS RELEASE
 FELONY CASE UPDATE
 May 5, 2017

| CASE NAME       | DISPOSITION/UPDATE                                                                                                                                                              |
|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                        |                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Rafeal Cabrera-Jones   | The Defendant was arraigned on an indicted charge of Promoting Prison Contraband, a Class D Felony.                                                                                    |
| Marc Clogston          | The Defendant was arraigned on a Violation of Probation.                                                                                                                               |
| Trevor Johnson         | The Defendant was arraigned on an indicted charge of Promoting Prison Contraband, a Class D Felony                                                                                     |
| Lawrence Lohr          | The Defendant pled guilty to Aggravated DWI with a Child Passenger less than 16, an E Felony with an anticipated sentence of 1-3 years in State Prison when sentenced on June 2, 2017. |
| Marvin Savilla-Rosales | The Defendant was sentenced to 3 ½-7 years in state prison on a conviction of Promoting Prison Contraband 1 st , a Class D Felony.                                          |
| Robert Middleton       | The Defendant was arraigned on a 17 count indictment charging 5 counts of a Sexually Motivated Felony, a Class D Felony, 3 counts of Attempted Use of a Child in a Sexual              |

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                   | Performance, a Class D Felony, 2 counts of Promoting Prostitution First, a Class B Felony, 5 counts of Endangering the Welfare of a Child, a Class A Misdemeanor and 2 counts of Patronizing a Person for Prostitution, a Class A Misdemeanor.                                                                                  |
| Rondell Pinkerton | The Defendant was arraigned on 5 counts of Promoting Prison Contraband 1 st , a Class D Felony.                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Ralph Salierno    | The Defendant was arraigned on 2 counts of Promoting Prison Contraband 1st, a Class D Felony.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Sergio Cepeda     | The Defendant was sentenced to 4 years in State Prison and 2 years Post Release Supervision on a plea to Criminal Possession of Controlled Substance 3rd, a Class B Felony. The Defendant was also sentenced on a separate matter to a consecutive 1 1/3 - 4 years in State Prison on a plea to Bail Jumping, a Class D Felony. |
| Daniel Murray     | The Defendant pled guilty to an indicted charge of Grand Larceny in the 4th, a Class E Felony with an anticipated sentence of 2-4 years in State Prison when sentenced on June 2, 2017                                                                                                                                          |
|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |